RULES

- Punctuality to start each route in consideration of all colleagues.
- Punctuality to be ready for each transfer to the port or airport.
- Respect the rules of each hotel where we stay.
- Respect the rules of the road during each route.
- If the group gets separated in a downhill, uphill, crossroads, traffic circle, etc. I do not worry because a guide will be closing the convoy.
- If I need to stop because I am tired, I will inform the guide closest to me and he/she will call the support car.
- Check the bag that is given to the support car each day for possible temperature changes during the route.

We recommend:

- For cycling routes: A change of cycling clothes for each day: shorts and jerseys. Helmet, shoes, sunglasses, gloves, cycling jacket, cycling raincoat, sunscreen.
- For the day: Comfortable clothes for traveling between islands, swimsuit for the pool, summer clothes, coat in case the weather changes, flip-flops, comfortable shoes, cap, among other items of clothing that you consider.
